The Greene Turtle and Washington Capitals form 'Game of the Month Party' Partnership

The Greene Turtle recently announced its partnership with the Washington Capitals for the remainder of the 2008-2009 NHL regular season.

All 21 of the sports bar and grille locations will be hosting Capitals' "Game of the Month" viewing parties for a selected away games. The three games will be Wednesday, Feb. 11 against the New York Rangers, Thursday, March 12 against the Philadelphia Flyers and Thursday, April 9 against the Tampa Bay Lightning.

At each viewing party The Greene Turtle will have giveaways and prizes including Caps hats, T-shirts and pint glasses.

"The Capitals are an exciting partner for The Greene Turtle for many reasons," said The Greene Turtle's president and CEO, Michael Sanford. "Not only do they have the best player in the game, Alex Ovechkin, but they also are currently in second place of the Eastern Conference and have a loyal fan base that seems to be growing rapidly with every game.

"Here's hoping that their season doesn't end until June when they are hoisting the Stanley Cup!" added Sanford.

The Greene Turtle Sports Bar & Grille has been an area tradition since opening in Ocean City in 1976. They currently have 22 locations in Maryland, Delaware and Washington, D.C.
